Bro: Scofield is on trial before Presbytery in this place, for attempting to produce schism in the Churches.

There appears to be a sufficient quantity of wrath in the Presbytery, moderately well assembled, to justify the idea, that ecclesiastically, Scofield's throat will be cut.

One or two aching hearts, at least, will rejoice if you succeed in getting poor Torrey released. I fear his health is ir-reparably gone.

Yrs truly

If you have occasion to write immediately, direct to Peterbor.
If at any indefinite time hereafter, you will enquire of Mrs Tappan. I think we shall have a good attendance at our Convention

Dear Bro:

Your of Decr 3^d - was rec^d the 16th Inst. I stopped collecting names for the call of the Convention after writing you last, because I supposed you w^d fix upon the time yourself, and advertise the call immediately. After consulting with the friends in Syracuse, the 28th & 29th of Jan'y, which will be Wednesday & Thursday of the week, it is thought, will be the best time for the Convention. Syracuse the place. Cong Chk.

I send you the following names now, and will continue to collect others and transmit them to you upon a slip, to be enclosed to Mr Tappan, who will send it to you. Though you will probably advertise before any, after these, reach you. You will make the request of, at least, all anti-slavery papers to give a notice of the call.
